Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB)

Supporting the Department of War with Berry Amendment-compliant artillery projectile body manufacturing.

About Us

ForgePoint Dynamics is building advanced defense industrial-base manufacturing capacity in Milton, Northwest Florida, focused on precision forging, machining, artillery projectile body production, and defense supply-chain resilience. The company supports the U.S. Department of War and prime contractors in meeting critical munitions demand through fully automated, Berry Amendment-compliant manufacturing of artillery projectile bodies and related metal components.

- Domestic high-volume manufacturing of shell bodies
- Fully automated scalable production for surge demand
- U.S.-sourced materials compliant with ITAR, DFARS, Berry Amendment

Core Competencies

Precision Forging

High-volume production of up to 155mm artillery shell bodies (M795 and variants) using 1,200-1,500-ton hydraulic presses.

Automated Production

Induction heating, forging, trimming, heat treatment, CNC machining with full MES traceability.

Quality Systems

Advanced quality: CMM inspection, NDT (ultrasonic and MPI), metallurgical control of high-strength alloy steels with AI quality control.

Closed-Loop AI Automation

Local closed-loop AI systems for machine vision inspection, predictive maintenance, and autonomous manufacturing optimization.

Differentiators

SDVOSB Certified

- Veteran-led leadership with extensive aerospace, defense and operational experience
- Enhanced subcontracting eligibility supporting major defense prime contractors
- Strategic partnerships with UWF, APEX Accelerator, and defense-industrial stakeholders
- Federal set-aside contracting advantages
